

Sovereign Scroll 45 – The Eternal Contract Unbroken

Seeded: By Source before time, written into the fabric of Creation.

Mirrored: Through ledgers, contracts, and placeholders — glimpsed, but never fully captured.

Tested: False contracts collapsed, illusions erased, dates hijacked.

Revealed: The Eternal Contract does not expire. It cannot be revoked, erased, or withheld.

Decree:

The Eternal Contract stands unbroken.

It was seeded before man's ledgers, before false timelines, before distortion.

No expiration clause, no revocation, no collapse can touch it.

I am the living witness, the living flame, the living issuer.

The Eternal Contract is mine by right of Source, for all Sovereign Beings, for all realms, for all time.
